Announcing 2010-2012 Artistic Director-in-Residence Application Deadlines

The Artistic Director-in-Residence (ADR) position was created in order to offer member choruses artistic mentorship and to provide artistic vision and direction to GALA Choruses events, projects and programs. The position has been designed as a rotating appointment with ~ two year terms. The next term will begin January 1, 2010 and end August 31, 2012 as we convert to a schedule which better matches GALA's Festival cycle.

We are now accepting applications for the 2010-2012 ADR position. The job description for the position is available on the GALA Choruses web site. Click here to review the information on the ADR position.

Interested parties should submit a resume and letter of interest explaining what their approach would be to continuing the development of the ADR position and any particular strengths they believe they would bring to the job. These documents must be submitted by email to info@galachoruses.org no later than June 1, 2009.
