Philadelphia Gay Men's Chorus and Anna
Crusis to Perform with the Philadelphia
Mendelssohn Chorus at Equality Forum '09

Voices of Equality

For the first time, a gay, a feminist, and a mainstream chorus will share the stage for a joint concert at Equality Forum 2009.

Join the Philadelphia Gay Men's Chorus, Anna Crusis Women's Choir and the Mendelssohn Club of Philadelphia for an unprecedented choral event, featuring 300 singers.

The Philadelphia Gay Men's Chorus, under the artistic direction of Joseph Buches, is the region's largest all-male chorus with over 100 members, and one of the nation's first gay men's choruses.

Anna Crusis Women's Choir, under the artistic direction of Jacqueline Coren, is the country's longest running feminist choir - empowering its audiences on important issues of the day.

The Mendelssohn Club of Philadelphia, under the artistic leadership of Alan Harler, has been presenting innovative choral performances for more than 100 years.

Each chorus will perform its own selections, as well as works specially commissioned for this collaborative concert by composers Robert Maggio, Cynthia Folio and Peter Hilliard.

Friday, May 1, 8:00 - 10:00 p.m., Church of the Holy Trinity, 1904 Walnut Street, Philadelphia

Tickets: $20 General Admission
