Mission Statement 2
PerformOUTKC provides a safe, inclusive atmosphere for youth of any and all identities, which fosters a positive identity development through excellence in music performance and creative expression.

Mission & Purpose Statements

Mission Statement

PerformOUTKC provides a safe, inclusive atmosphere for youth of any and all identities, which fosters a positive identity development through excellence in music performance and creative expression.

Purpose Statement

- To provide a safe place for the LGBTQA young people (14-20) of the Kansas City Metro Area to be themselves and develop a positive self image.
- To explore self-expression through the performing arts (Vocal and Instrumental Music, Dance, Theater, Writing and the Visual Arts).
- To share their life experiences and voices with the Kansas City Community through performance.

Slogan

We Explore, Discover, Celebrate, Share

Organizational Narrative

It's hard to believe that we are beginning our fifth year. What an exciting time for PerformOUTKC, as we just came off an amazing experience at the GALA Choruses Festival in Denver. Our young artists joined 6,000 delegates as we shared our voices with each other. For every one of our young artists, it was a life-changing experience.

This year we are excited about a lot of firsts for us. We have a new artistic director who has programmed our very first performance season together. This year we are also launching the 4C Project, which reaches out to area teachers and school administrators. We want to assist them in creating an accepting environment in their classrooms. It's an exciting time for our organization, a time of growth and a time for young people to explore and discover, to celebrate and share.

PerformOUTKC was created for charitable and educational purposes for the young people of the Kansas City community. Too often our young people do not have an individual or organization that will allow them to just be themselves. To counteract the rise in bullying and teen suicides, PerformOUTKC was created to reach out to young people to help them navigate through the challenges of adolescence. PerformOUTKC strives to let them know they are not alone while giving them an avenue to share their feelings with others in the community.

PerformOUTKC began weekly artistic rehearsals in November 2009. These rehearsals are facilitated by volunteer mentors and chaperones. We currently have an artistic director and a volunteer accompanist to mentor and coach the young people at weekly rehearsals. Members of our board of directors and adult volunteers participate as chaperones for the young people at rehearsals, which are focused on allowing these young people to share and express themselves through the performing arts. The young artists come together to share their diverse talents ranging from dance, music, visual arts and the written word.

We have an eight-member board of directors that currently meets once a month. The board, in partnership with our volunteer business manager, works to ensure that PerformOUTKC is a strong and viable organization for the young people of Kansas City.

Mission Statement

PerformOUTKC provides a safe, inclusive atmosphere for youth of any and all identities, which fosters a positive identity development through excellence in music performance and creative expression.

As you will see from the attached booklet, we have created plans for business growth, marketing and fundraising. Our fundraising plan includes events, planned giving campaigns, organizational and corporate gifts as well as earned income. Each board member is committed and passionate about the mission of PerformOUTKC.

PerformOUTKC was created to provide a safe place for Kansas City area youth ages 14 to 20 to identify and embrace their own self-identity. We hope they will discover an environment that is welcoming and free of boundaries, a safe harbor for those who need a place to belong and be celebrated.

Article I – Purpose

The purpose of this Board conflict of interest policy is to protect PerformOUTKC's interests when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interests of an officer or director of PerformOUTKC or might result in a possible excess benefit transaction.
2. This policy is intended to supplement, but not replace, any applicable state and federal laws governing conflicts of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.
3. This policy is also intended to identify "independent" directors.

Article II -- Definitions

2. Recusal of Self -- Any director may recuse himself or herself at any time from involvement in any decision or discussion in which the director believes he or she has or may have a conflict of interest, without going through the process for determining whether a conflict of interest exists.

3. Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists -- After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the Board or Executive Committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining Board of Directors shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.

4. Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest

c. After exercising due diligence, the Board of Directors shall determine whether PerformOUTKC can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.

d. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the Board of Directors shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in PerformOUTKC's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination, it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

5. Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy

a. If the Board of Directors has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.

1. Find out what the candidate knows about our non-profit organization. Since we are a non-profit group, look for ideas from the candidate that provides possibilities for increased revenue for the group.
2. Review candidate references provided to get a good feel of how he/she governs.
3. Ask the candidate why he/she would like to serve. The candidate should be seeking approval from the board because he/she truly wants to serve and improve the community. If the prospective board member is only in it for the money or glory, he/she might not be the best person for the duty.
4. Inquire as to whether the prospective member participates in other boards. Some people just like to collect titles for their resumes. If a candidate sit on several boards, he/she might not have the time to properly attend to our board's needs.
5. Evaluate everyone on your board of directors annually. If a member is not willing to submit to a periodical review like everyone else, he/she is not good for your group.

Marketing Plan

About the Organization

PerformOUTKC is an arts organization offered to young adults ages 14-20 to celebrate and expressed themselves rather it's by vocal or instrumental music, dance, theatre arts or spoken word. PerformOUTKC serves the entire Kansas City metropolitan area. Our members will be encouraged to strive for excellence in their education and through performance.

Goals

We would like to increase our visibility, attract young artists, and encourage adult supporters. The goal is to maximize our capacity with social media and internet marketing to reach both young artists and adult supporters.

Objectives

Our primary focus is to expand our database through an email campaign. The more contacts we have the more connections we'll acquire. Another main focus is to retain our current list of supports to keep them updated on the organization progress and process and to create awareness of why PerformOUTKC was created and exist in the community.

Target Audience

Our target audience should be young adults ages 13-21 to simply invite them to join the organization or to support the mission of the organization in their communities. Another target audience would be adults over the age of 21 to financially support the mission and vision of the organization. If we can achieve reaching out to both diverse audiences, we will be very successful in marketing PerformOUTKC. Overall, our target audience will be looking for customized services from the organization to keep their intention and motives alive.

Best strategies

Once we identify and capture the diverse audiences our goal is to make sure we keep them motivated. Most supporters of an organization like to stay motivated rather it's through community development, performance or verbal communication. Another method of motivation for our supports will be to give back, enrich them with simple means of Thanks.

Volunteer Guidelines

the volunteer; (2) Guidelines for interacting with youth; (3) Guidelines in student relationships for volunteer

For the purposes of this document, “youth” refers only to members of the PerformOUTKC

- o ALWAYS speak to youth in a manner that is respectful. Avoid conversation or actions that could be construed as being threatening, demeaning or humiliating;
- o DO NOT supply alcohol or illegal drugs/substances to members of the PerformOUTKC, regardless of their age
- o DO NOT engage in sexually explicit conversations with or in the vicinity of youth;
- o DO NOT share sexually explicit, inappropriate or offensive materials;
- o DO NOT engage in inappropriate touching, including lengthy embraces, kisses on the mouth, touching the buttocks, chest, legs or genital areas. Hand shakes and “high fives” are the best options! A quick, polite hug is acceptable, but it’s a good idea to ask first (e.g. “May I give you a hug?”);
- o DO NOT make assumptions about a youth’s gender or sexual orientation. You may wish to inquire politely how an individual would like to be addressed for the purposes of conversation (e.g. “What pronoun should I call you?” or “Should I refer to you as ‘he’ or ‘she’?”);
- o DO NOT go anywhere private (e.g. bathroom, bedroom, on a trip) with a youth unless another adult is present;

If you wish to share your own - or request a youth’s - contact information (e.g. email, phone, mail), you must first SEEK PERMISSION to do so from the director of PerformOUTKC or an adult chaperone traveling with PerformOUTKC.

TRANSPORTATION

If you choose to transport youth(s) in your private vehicle, you assume responsibility for any accident that may occur. The organization to which you belong will not assume any responsibility or liability.

NUDITY

Avoid being nude or partially nude in the presence of a youth, and avoid being in the presence of a youth who is nude or partially nude. In the situation where a dressing room must be shared, please be discreet when changing. For instance, change quickly in a corner of the room rather than walking around for ten minutes in your underwear. Stay in your designated area of the dressing room. Do not stare at someone who is changing.

SEXUAL BEHAVIOIR

If a youth initiates contact with you that is sexual in nature, (verbal or physical) put an immediate stop to it and make sure that you have someone else with you every time that you have to interact with this youth. You are the adult and consensual, sexually suggestive contact is not allowed under any circumstances. Any complaints received will be investigated immediately.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Do not share any information you may have about a youth (e.g. “he’s gay” or “she’s MTF”), even if the information may seem harmless to you. Remember that San Francisco is probably the most liberal city in the world, and what you may consider to be harmless may be considered harmful to others.

Mission Statement

PerformOUTKC provides a safe, inclusive atmosphere for youth of any and all identities, which fosters a positive identity development through excellence in music performance and creative expression.

Volunteer Guidelines (con't)

DISCLOSURE

If you observe anyone in violation of the guidelines listed here, or if you observe any other behaviors that may be considered questionable, please report the incident immediately to the leadership of your organization (e.g. board member, artistic director, executive director). This will help to protect everyone involved.

ADULT OR MINOR?

Although some singers in the _____ may be legal adults, they are still bound by these rules. Basically, treat these youth as if they were a relative (e.g. niece, nephew). Ask yourself: "Is this something I would say to my sister's kids?" Being aware of your actions will help to keep you from doing or saying something inappropriate. Think ahead. Think before you speak. Think before you act.
