

WRITING PROMPT

Thinking about the common ground game we just played, what is something that you are happy about at school?

What is something that you wish were different or could be better at school?

Write down 1-3 things that you need from other students, teachers, or admin at school to make the situation better.

What do you hope for?

What is something you hope for when thinking about your school and your community?

What do you wonder?

What questions do you have that you'd like to ask the singers in the San Francisco Gay Men's Chorus?
